

Celebrating the Relationship between Pittsburgh and Japan through Garden Design

Date: Monday,
September 9th
Time: 4:30 p.m.
Place: Humanities
Center, Cathedral of Learning, Room 602.

Prof. Shunsaku Miyagi (University of Tokyo) is one of Japan's most eminent landscape architects. He is also the representative director of the Byodoin Temple, a temple in Kyoto that is a UNESCO World Heritage Site and so important in Japan that an image of it is on the back of every 10-yen coin. Trained and educated in the US and Japan, his guiding philosophy is "Life is Design Itself." He will discuss Japanese gardens and connecting Pittsburgh and Japan through landscape design.

Sponsored by the Japan Council, the Asian Studies Center, University Center for International Studies and the Office of the Provost: The Year of Creativity.

Funding provided by the Japan Iron and Steel Federation and Mitsubishi endowments at the University of Pittsburgh.
